BUSKIN REGAINS HIS FORM

ONE OF LAST SEASON'S GOOD THREE-YEAR-OLDS WINS AT PIMLICO.

Robbins' Racer Beats Good Opposition in Rennert Handicap-Baltimore County Racing Commission Reorganized.

Baltimore, Md., May 13.—C. H. Robbins' Buskin showed a return to the form he displayed last summer when he won the feature race at Plinlico this afternoon, the Rennert Handicap, in which he met a band of fair-class horses. Buskin looked big in going to the post and some doubts were expressed as to the colt being ready. He simply played with his opposition, however, and assuming an easy lead on the turn out of the backstretch, galloped home five lengths in advance of Holiday. The mile was run in 1:40½ and on today's performance it looks as if Buskin will cut an important figure in the eastern handicaps this season. William Garth showed up another fair two-year-old this afternoon in Hiker, a filly by Peep O'Day—Nellie Bly. Hiker showed a game performance in making all of her own pace and lasting long enough to withstand the challenge of Disifusion. The latter net with much interference and was knocked back to almost last place on the turn out of the backstretch. She was simply flying at the end and would have won in another stride.

The steeplechase also furnished a nose finish in which Compliment heat Brynder by the narrowest of margins. Like Disillusion, Brynder was best. He, too, was repeatedly interferred with and in the final drive Thekey outfinished O'Brien.

Governor Goldsborough has announced the newly-appointed racing commission for Baltimore County. The new governing body consists of Duane H. Rice, Dr.—M. J. Cromwell and J. Eden Griffith. The commission takes the place of that composed of Redmond C. Stewart, Fred Von Kopf and Spaulding Lowe Jenkins. The old commission resigned largely because of the criticism that was made of their more County employing only the pari-mutuel form of wagering. The first business that will be taken up by the new body will be whether or not the pari-mutuel system shall prevail at the half-mile tracks of Baltimore County employing only the pari-mutuel form of wagering. The first business that will be taken up by the new body will be whether or not the pari-mutuel system shal

A carload of horses left Pimlico today for New York to take part in the racing at Belmont Park Terminal Saturday. Trainer M. Smart sent Handrunning, Kinnelon, Lady Rotha and Lydia A.: William Garth sent Virginia Lass; Anthony Allen sent Willing; Jere Carroll, Election Bet and James Fitz-simmons, Armament.

Another shipment of horses was made this afterneon to Camada, when five owners sent their strings to Delorimier Park, one of the half mile tracks at Montreal. They were A. E. House, F. Harrison, G. Sprague, H. Hanson and Roy Martin.

Parker Whitney, a California sportsman, who only recently came into racing, has intimated that he will shortly dispose of his stable of horses. Several of his thoroughbreds are well engaged in the New York stakes that have already been closed.

GOSSIP AND COMMENT FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—John Furlong has been working impressively for his Kentucky Handicap engagement at Douglas Park, The Pons gelding has apparently regained his old-time dash and comes at the finish of his trials like he has always been credited with being, a thorough stayer. Yesterday he worked a good mile in 1:42%, and he has have several other trials at this distance in 1:45 or better within the last two weeks. It is the intention of trainer William R, Sallee to give him a preliminary race or two for his Kentucky Handicap engagement during the present Churchill Downs meeting, and he believes this will make him thoroughly fit or his best effort in Douglas Park's big event, which will be run on the opening day of the meeting, saturday, May 23.

Prince Hermis continues to train superbly for the higr race and trainer Marion looks for the four-year-old to be even better than he was last season. His last work was a mile in 1:43½, and the mile and an eighth, pulling up, in a shade under 1:57. Prince Hermis' trial for the big stake at Douglas Park will come next Saturday at the Downs, in the Clark Handicap, when after he finishes in that ace, trainer Marion will work him out a mile and a quarter with the colors up.

The Clark Handicap, when after he finishes in that are in the tar feature even of the coming meeting at Douglas Park. Of course some of the eligibles to the Kentucky Handicap are not in the Clark Handicap, but many horses of high class are among the entries for the latter race that are for the former big event and are sure to start in both races.

In the former big event and are sure to start, in both races.

There is surely a great array of horses with wonderful racing records in the Kentucky Handicaphis spring and the event, with its $10,000 added, will arouse as much interest as any race of the season, not even excepting the big Derby events. While the Derby generally furnishes the champion among the three-year-olds, it is safe to say that the winner of the Kentucky Handicap this season will be hailed as the king of the older division of Without going so far as to say that Old Rosebud is the best horse I have ever seen, which he is not, yet one may go to the races for a generation without seeing duplicated what he showed in the way of speed on Saturday. It rained in a drizzling and dreary way all day Friday in Louisville, and in the real way that night, so that the morning papers regretfully announced that "the Derby will-be run in a sea of mud." It wasn't, but one may readily understand that it was not run over a fast track, in spite of the improvement worked by the bright, warm skies of Saturday morning. Yet Old Rosebud went a mile over it galloping a couple of lengths in front of the laboring half-dozen behind him in 1:39½. There was still a quarter of a mile to go before earning the $9.125 that was due to the first horse. The others were not near him, and could not get near him. They had done their best, while the leader was never urged. But he slackened off not at all. That last quarter be ran in 23%, seconds, a rate of speed that few horses are capable of at most times, and possessed by not one in a thousand after running a mile better than 1:40. This was the outstanding feature of Old Rosebud's Derby victory, and the climax of a display of immense superiority over his opponents. Hodge is a gallant little horse and was equally the master of those behind him, but he will need much advantage in the way of weight and other assisting conditions before he can conquer the one that was in front of him all the way on this occasion.

Old Rosebud was bred by J. E. Madden, and practically thrown in with a batch of yearlings that Applegate & Company bought from him a couple of seasons ago. On Saturday Mr. Madden's best representative, the filly Watermelon, toiled hopelessly along a dozen lengths behind the gelding that he practically gave away. And yet they say you can pick the best yearlings on their looks! Old Rosebud is by the Star Shoot horse. Uncle, and his dam. Ivory Bells, is a daughter of Himyar and Ida Pickwick.—Francis Nelson in Toronto Glo he hailed as the king of the older division of horses.

T. T. Weaver has only four borses in his string the Downs. Aside from Gowell, his stable consists of Ymir, John G. Weaver and the two-year-old Go Easy. The latter is eligible to the Juvenile Stakes to be run at the Downs on Monday, May 18, and she is also in the Spring Trial Stakes at Douglas Park. Mr. Weaver expects Gowell to give a good account of herself in the Kentucky Handicap. He probably will start her in the Clark Handicap. He probably will start her in the Clark Handicap. Gowell ran in the Kentucky Handicap last season and had all the bad luck in the race and still at that was only mosed out by the lightly-weighted Any Port in the last few strides. She showed her real metal later on in the Latonia Derby, when she held

FRIENDS OF RACING IN LOUISIANA ACTIVE

The legislative correspondent of the New Orleans Times-Democrat and Daily Picayane writes his paper from Baton Rouge, as follows:

"Two of the biggest legislative contests that will occur during the session developed on the opening day of the General Assembly. The contests grew out of notices that were given in the House of the Introduction of two bills, one by Representative Reinhardt of New Orleans providing for the restoration of racing at New Orleans, and the other by Representative Schwing of Iberville, providing for the guaranty of bank deposits.

"Carrying out his declaration that he intended to force the fighting over the racing question, Representative Reinhardt gave notice the moment that Speaker Thomas called for notices of bills, that he will at once introduce his racing commission bill and will ask that it be referred to the Committee on Affairs of the City of New Orleans. Following the notice of the bill, Representatives Reinhardt and Labarre began work in the House to secure support.

"Reports having been circulated around the the notice of the bill, Representatives Reinhardt and Labarre began work in the House to secure support.

"Reports having been circulated around the Capitol that the opponents of the racing bill would attempt to kill the bill at the outset by the indefinite postponement route, Messrs, Reinhardt and Labarre hestirred themselves with the view of forcing a roll call on any effort to strangle the bill. They secured over forty pledges from members that they would demand a roll call and force a record vote. Roll calls are not required on motions to indefinitely postpone bills unless twenty-four members demand it.

"The two Orleans members secured more than enough pledges to compel a registered vote on a motion to collect the bill. Mr. Reinhardt said that he will present to the House a petition containing between 12,000 and 14,000 signatures memorializing the Legislature to pass his bill.

"Eighty per cent of the people of New Orleans,' Mr. Reinhardt said, 'favor the restoration of racing, and the Legislature ought to give the people what they want. You can take it from me that there will be a roll call on my bill, and that we will have a showdown on the racing issue. I went into this fight after careful consideration, and I am in it to a finish.

THE SPEED OF OLD ROSEBUD.

"Mr. Reinhardt said he would not oppose Mr. Labarre's amendment to his bill providing for a referendum election in Orleans parish on the restoration of racing. 'I know,' he said, 'that the people want racing, and if the Legislature sees fit to tack a referendum amendment to my bill, I will not oppose it. I will trust the folks at home when the election is held.

"While the advocates of racing were busy the opponents of the Reinhardt bill were not permitting any grass to grow under their feet. They began a poil of the House for the purpose of sounding the sentiment of the members toward the bill. Representative Friedman of Natchitoches was one of the active opponents of the bill. He fought the Labarre racing bill when it was introduced at the last session and assisted Representative Locke of Calcasieu in securing pledges against that measure. Mr. Friedman said today that in his opinion, the Reinhardt bill would not stand the ghost of a show in the House. He thought it was a waste of time for the House to consider it.

"Representative Locke of Calcasieu has in his possession the written pledges of fifty-six members of the House who signed an agreement at the last session to vote to kill any racing bill that might be introduced, and in addition to the written pledges, Mr. Locke secured the verbal pledges of eleven other members that they would oppose any racing legislation. Mr. Locke said he regarded the Injection of the racing issue into this session as ill-timed and unfortunate.

"One of the interesting features of the contest over the racing bill is the attitude of some of the voters of New Orleans by the adoption of a referendum amendment, This element is showing a disposition to vote a referendum amendment on the ground that racing is a local question that can be settled by the parishes. Representative Dupont of Terrebonne said today that he was inclined to vote to get rid of the whole issue by referring the racing question to the people of New Orleans. 'If New Orleans wants racing,' said Mr. Du Pont, 'I am w the noted three-year-old. Great Britain, perfectly safe after they had gone a mile. If she meets with no mishaps between now and May 23, the date on which the Kentucky Handleap is to be run, she will be a most dangerous starter in that rich stake. W. J. Spiers, of O'Connell note, has only two horses in training at the Downs this spring, they being the three-year-olds Serenata and Laird of Langdon. They are both doing well and he expects them to win before long. Anything Spiers has in training is always respected by his brother horsemea, as he is a skiliful handler of horses.

E. C. Taylor has purchased the eight-year-old mare, Rupicola, and will mate her this season with Garry Herrmann, sire of the Latonia Derby winner, Governor Gray. Rubicola is a daughter of that great race horse, Advance Guard, and is out of Kin Rose by Kingston; her next dam is the famous Royal Rose, dam of the Fulurity winner, Pennant; the king of American sprinters, Iron Mask; Lancastrian and the Kentucky sire Transyaal.

J. S. Hawkins, who has the crack two-year-old, Chalmers, in his stable, reports that his noted broodmare, Wing Ting, winner of the Kentucky Oaks of 1907, has recently foaled a beautiful coal-black filly by that great race horse, Ballot. This daughter of The Commoner will be mated this season with the Futurity winner, Ogden, Mr. Hawkins other good mare, La Pucelle, had the misfortune to slip her foal by Ballot this spring and will be mated this season with the Futurity winner, Ogden, Mr. Hawkins thinks he never saw a suckling filly that had anything on Wing Ting's foal this season and he has already begun building air castles as to what she will be able to do on the turf when she is a two and a three-year-old in 1916-17.

Woodford Clay, one of the partners in the racing firm of Clay Brothers, who last Monday sold Sea Shell to the Canadian turfman, R. J. Mackenzie, thinks this grand-looking filly will develop later on in the summer into one of the best two-year-olds of her sex. She is of a different type than Ocean Bound,

Other works were: Stucco, half mile in 50%; bynamite, three-quarters in 1:22; Martola and Cedar Hundley, five-eighths in 1:07%; Volvode and Gerald G., three-quarters in 1:24; J. H. Houghton, half in 52; Jacomo, half in 56.

With ten two-year-olds in the one stable, and he may have the mount on one of the King's Platers on Woodbine's opening day.

The lameness of Mausolus may disappear, as it has before, but just now it seems likely to keep him out of the Plate. The trouble is difficult to locate exactly, and last year it left him in a few days. His owner, H. H. Roberts, was in Louisville to see the Derby, and to look about for a rider for his horse in the race that all Canadians are so anxious to win.

The list of entries includes the majority of the regulars who have raced over the Canadian circuit the past few years, as well as numerous newcomers. There has been a liberal increase in the stake values and the overnight purses will also show an increase. There will be a handicap each day, as well as a steeplechase and a stake event. It has been announced by the management of the Monireal Jockey Club that bookmaking will be the only style of betting used at Blue Bonnets this year. The nutuel system used for the past two seasons in conjunction with the books will be discontinued this summer. The course is now in splendid condition and many of the recent arrivals from the racing stables in the vicinity of Montreal are working their horses daily over the track. The first of the out-of-fown strings to arrive at the track is that owned by Harry Shannon, which includes twelve, headed by Joe Gaitens and The Gardener.

Ottawa, Ont., May 13.—The closing of the entries for the stakes at Connaught Park has demonstrated in the most striking manner the support that racing people are giving to the new club, and gives testimony to the appreciation of the stake offerings.
